IN AN independent Presbyterian Church, in Chicago last Sunday, in which the Lord's Prayer had been repeated, the tenth chapter of St. Luke been read, and "Nearer My God to as the place and September 30th John Rusk, presented Colonel Robert Ingersoll, the notorious infidel, who entertained an immense, overflowing and applauding congregation for two hours, with a discourse intended to destroy their faith in religion, but offering to them nothing in exchange. His hearers were dressed in fine clothes, but they remind people at a distance of the Parisian sans-culottes, and suggest anticipations of dire evils, not only in Chicago, but in all the other parts of the country.

MR. W. D. CABELL, formerly of Virginia, now of Washington, says "the progress of the South has been retarded by her references to the past." A republican newspaper of Boston says "The eternal distinction between good and evil, right and wrong, union and disunion, patriotism and treachery. freedom and slavery, can never be wiped out. To pretend that they can be, that they have been, is not to promote good will and the healing of the breach, but is merely to degrade all concerned." But the Southern gushers can only see the faults of the people of their own section, and their constant efforts to be conspicuous, suggest thoughts by no means complimentary

THE PRODUCT of a man's mind is his own individual property, as much so as is that of his hand. But a well known preacher in New York, in order to whichwill be the alleged unconstitutionsave himself the work of preparing a ality of the law under which the election sermon for Easter, deliberately stole one, and when accused of the theft, at tempted to clear himself by telling a against the unconstitutionality of the lie, and, in both the theft and the lie he is supported by the famous moral reformer, Rev. Dr. Parkhurst, of the same city. Such men do infinitely more harm to the cause they profess than Colonel Ingersoll and all the other blatant infidels.

No MATTER how much divided the democrats of the country may be on the silver question, they, as they should be, and as the founder of their party. Thomas Jefferson, was, are solid in their opposition to the A. P. A.'s, and to the latter's attempt to ostracise and proscribe citizens of the country on account of their nativity and religious opinions. Fortunately for the South, such associations find the climate here uncongenial to them. This section has always been the home of political and

In a press dispatch from Charlottes ville, in the GAZETTE yesterday evening, it was stated that the present owner of Monticello is "a descendant of the great democrat." The statement is surprising, but more so, coming as it did from Charlottesville, near the home of Mr. Jefferson. Commodore Levy, who purchased Monticello, was in no way descended or connected with Mr. Jefferson, nor is his nephew, Mr. Jefferson Levy, the present proprietor of the place.

THE WHITE insurgents in Nicaragua have elected a President, and establish ed a government with a name and local habitation. But the jingoes of this country have not expressed their sympathy with them, nor has Congress as yet asked the President to recognize their belligerency, or offered to mediate with Nicaragua for their independence. It would probably have been otherwise if they, like the Cuban insurgents, were negroes and mulattoes.

THE Gregon democrats having, in State convention assembled, declared for free silver, the "Cleveland democrats" of that State, like those of New York, Maryland and Kentucky, have bolted and nominated a ticket of their own, in order to transform a doubtful, into a certain republican victory there. Cleveland democrats are a costly luxury to both State and national democracies.

JUDGING from the expressions of the Virginians who heard the speeches at Monticello yesterday, the people of the tariff. State, wrong as they may be, are almost solid for free silver, though those who addressed them were divided on that question.

FROM WASHINGTON.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.] WASHINGTON, April 14.

Senator Morgan is gaining strength, and a marked improvement is noted in | last night, his condition. He was much better this morning. Senator Voorhees is also improving, and was out riding yesterday afternoon. His appetite has returned, and it is expected he will soon resume his duties.

The Arizona Statehood bill was or dered to be favorably reported this morning by the House territories committee. This object was not gained however, until a strong protest had been made by three members of the committee against taking a vote at this time. Among the five members who voted for a favorable report was Mr. Turner, of Virginia.;

The executive committee of the na tional association of democratic clubs met at the Ebbitt House here to-day Congressman McMillin, of Tennessee, presided. St. Louis, Mo., was selected Thee" been sung, the pastor, Rev. Dr. as the time for holding the annual convention of the national association of democratic clubs. The secretary was directed to communicate with the officers of all clubs belonging to the association and request them to meet the general officers of the association at Chicago for conference on July 6th. The committee subsequently paid their respects to the President.

The prevailing impression at the Capitol to-day, on the Cuban subject, is that the President will take no action in respect of the resolutions recently passed by Congress on that suject, until General Lee shall reach Cuba and report to him, and that then he will take even less notice of those resolutions than he has already done.

The following changes in the fourth class postoffices of Virginia were made to-day: Big Cut, Scott county, Wm. B. Peters, appointed postmaster, vice Jas.
H. Peters, resigned; Bolington, Loudoun county, Samuel W. Brooks, vice Thos. D. Kalb, resigned.

Virginia republicans here to-day say they think the faction fight in their party in their State will be settled satisfactorily at the Staunton convention, as the leaders on both sides now see the foolishness of their squabble and have signified their willingness to make mu tual concessions. They say that though the convention will be for McKinley, Col. Lamb may still be endorsed, except in respect of his course in the case of the republican committee of Richmond city.

As stated in this correspondence of yesterday, when the report of the elecions committee of the House in the Danville, Virginia, district, is in favor of the democratic contestee, there will be a minority report, the ground of was held. The same republican members of the committee who signed this minority report had not a word to say election law in any of the other cases they have decided, and why they should have lugged it into Mr. Swanson's, nobody seems to know.

In and about the room of the finance committee of the Senate it is whispered that the nomination of Capt. W. H. Fowle, sent in yesterday for Col-lector of Internal Revenue, vice General Fitz. Lee, nominated for Consul General to Havans, will not be confirmed.

.Those who went from here yester day to Monticello and heard Senator Daniel's speech, speak in the highest terms of it, and say none of the other speeches made on the occasion compared with it in respect of either matter or manner.

While no report has yet been made in the contested election case of Yost vs. Tucker, from the Staunton, Virginia, district, the prevailing belief on the subject is that the contestee will retain his seat, and Mr. Tucker's constituents may rest assured that that belief is true. The regular weekly meeting of the vene-zuelan boundary commission to-day was de-voted to the reading of the reports made by various members on the sub-topics to which they were individually assigned. No action was taken, and the question of sending a member or members abroad to collect information was not discussed. It is not likely that this subject will be taken up for some time as a mass of matter is expected shortly by the commission from the Venezuelan minister. Secretary Carlisle left here this morning for Chicago, where he will deliver a speech

There are rumors of a scheme ma tured by a combination of leading democrats to capture the presidency by organizing a split at the Chicago conven-tion. The idea is to put two democratic tickets in the field and then have the two wings of the party come together in the electoral college and select a candidate of that party, provided, of course, that the so-called regular democrats and the bolting democrats have jointly a sufficient number of electoral votes to turn the trick.

FIFTY-FOURTH CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, April 14.

SENATE. Senator Morrill, of Vermont, reached the age of 86 years and to day he was in his seat in the Senate chamber, as active and alert as any time within the last ten or fifteen years. When the day's session was opened with prayer, the chaplain, Rev. Mr. Milburn, in his invocation, made ap-

In the course of the morning busi-ness Mr. Morrill, who is chairman of the committee on public buildings and grounds, gave notice that he would, on Thursday next, ask the Senate to hear him for 10 or 15 minutes, when he hoped to satisfy the Senate that an additional building for the National Mu-eum is an absolute necessity.

Mr. Squire addressed the Senate on the subject of the national defense. He opened his speech in these words:—

Mr. President, what are our ideals as a nation? What is our conception of our character and destiny? for peace. Are we for peace at any price? We are for independence. Are we for independence without taking steps to maintain that independence? We are for progress and advancement of the interests, not only of our own people, but of all mankind. We are full of sympathy for the oppressed and down trodden in every part of the civilized world. We are for the 'Monroe doctrine"-for the preservation of the soil inviolate from European aggression on both the American continents. Are we willing to support our belief in the "Monroe doctrine" by comething more than empty declarations, which are "as sounding brass and tinkling cymbals?" Again we are for economy in expendi-tures. Are we for that false economy that takes no proper thought of to-morrow and makes no provision against the greatest possible risks to out safety, dignity and the peace as a na-tion? What an absurd spectacle has the Congress of the United States presented during the present session by its persistent talk in favor of the intervention by the United States in behalf of Cuba and Venezuela. How cheap is all this talk, sincere though it may be on many occasions. Every man who has informed himself on the subject of national defenses knows that as a nation we are not in a condition to undertake war or to suffer war. the very last thing we can undertake or suffer in our present condition, be-cause it will certainly bring the great-est loss and humiliation. The people know that the nation has millions of brave and patriotic men who would gather at the call to arms. But they to not know that there is no mean of arming these hosts upon the emergency that may arise. They do not know that the great sea coast cities are numbering ours in strength. At the close of Mr. Squire's speech the Dupont election case was taken up and Mr. Chandler addressed the Senate in advocacy of Mr. Dupont's right to the vacant seat in the Senate from the State of Delaware.

HOUSE.

In the House to-day Mr. Bingham eported from the conferees on the legislative, executive and judicial appro priation bill the agreement made, leavng the two Houses still apart on some thing over one hundred of the 314 amendments made by the Senate. Mr. Bingham explained the grounds of difference. He stated that the increases made by the Senate in the matter of its employes were not warranted. He had for years seen the House stand valiantly against the policy of the Senate, in the matter of the expenses of that body, but he had never seen any other result than the retirement of the House from the contest, leaving the Senate in

The Senate had amended the bill by making clerks to Senators, not chairmen of committees annual, instead of sessional and increasing their salaries from $100 a month to $1500 a year. Mr. Cannon stated to the House that he was in full sympathy with the posi-tion taken by the gentleman from Pennsylvania and gave notice, that, in his opinion, if the House wanted to pay clerks during vacations, they would or der it to be done by one of the two methods that are parliamentarily proper, mainly and right and not in tion of the rules of the House. But it could not be done by an amendment to an appropriation bill.

BUSINESS MEN'S LEAGUE.

The regular weekly meeting of the Business Men's League was held last night. The attendance was not large, nor was much business transacted. President M. B. Harlow presided and

Mr. W. F. Carne was secretary.

The President stated that Mr. Chas. King had received a communication from a St. Louis firm which offered to put $10,000 into a boot and shoe factory in this city provided $30,000 could be subscribed by Alexandrians. The firm had stated that profits ranging from 20 to 33 per cent. could be realized on the investment.

A conversational debate followed as to the most practical way to increase the city's commercial importance. It was generally conceded that large small ones might be induced to do so, do much good. It was suggested that in the large cities many such enter-prises were compelled to do business in cramped quarters, often in lofts, and the fact that in this city they could have ample room at moderate rent and en-joy all the railroad and water facilities of the larger cities might prove an inducement for them to come here. The fact was alluded to that Mr. Charles Paff a year or two ago started a shoe factory here on a small scale, manufacturing about 25 pairs of shoes a day. Now between 400 and 500 pairs are turned out daily and 40 people are employed; besides the factory often finds it impossible to fill the orders received. Why similar enterprises could not be inaugurated here was a pertinent question.

On motion it was resolved that Senator Martin be requested to have incor porated in the river and harbor bill an appropriation for a channel through the Maryland flats in order that the Maryland ferry line can re-established. Bishop Ryan's Funeral.

BUFFALO, N. Y., April 14.—The funeral of the late Bishop Ryan took place in St. Joseph's Cathedral this morning and down under the altar where so often he offered up the sacrifice of the mass was laid to rest the re mains of the dead prelate. The Cathe dral was filled to its utmost capacity within fifteen minutes after the doors were opened. A heavy rain fell, but the waiting throng seemed to mind it not at all. The only recognized organization among the immense congregation of people were the supreme grand councils of the C. M. B. A., the society which owes its existence to Bishop Ryan, and the forty ministers of different creeds who drew up and signed the resolutions on the death of the prelate. Shortly after 9:30 o'clock the visiting elergy came in from the sacristy and last of all the celebrant, Archbishop Corrigan. All were robed in magnificent vestments. When all were in places the office for the dead was chanted by 300 priests. The celebrant then donned the vestments worn in the mass. The beautiful and solemn requiem Gregorian mass was was sung by all male voices. proved February 29th, 1896, it was provided among other things"1" " That it shall be the duty of the Board of Supervisors of Alexandria county, at its first regular meeting occurring ten days after the passage of this act, to give public notice of a special meeting of said board to be held not less than ten days nor more than fifteen days thereafter, at which meeting the said board shall bear arguments and spaces. said board shell hear arguments and suggestion of a county seat, and the said board shall at its next regular meeting proceed to nominate the three locations which in its judgment are best suited for the location of the county seat."

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That the said special meeting to hear arguments and sug gestions shall be held at the county court house, in Alexandria city, on the 25TH DAY OF APRIL, A. D., 1896, beginning at 11 o'clock a. m. of said day.

It is further ordered that public notice of the said special meeting be given in the fol-lowing manner:

The County Clerk shall forthwith cause a
